Children's Summer Clothing Drive June 3 - 5

Again this summer, the Park Avenue Synagogue Committee for the Homeless and Community Outreach, in cooperation with the Metropolitan New York Council on Jewish Poverty, will assist Russian emigre families to send their children, ages 8 to 12, to a Jewish sleep-away camp. The committee is asking the congregation for help in outfitting these children with summer clothing by donating the following items either new or in very good condition: dresses and sport jackets (for Shabbat services), pants, jeans, shorts, T-shirts, pajamas, socks, jackets, caps, bathing suits, rain gear, boots, laundry bags. Cash donations in lieu of or in addition to clothing donations will also be gratefully accepted.

The clothing drive will take place Monday, June 3 through Wednesday, June 5 between 8:30 A.M. and 7 P.M. at Park Avenue Synagogue, on the Lower Level.

Volunteers are needed to staff the collection table during the three day drive. If you have any time between 8:30 A.M. and 7 P.M., please call Linda Charet at 628-0653. Even an hour of your time would be appreciated.

Rabbi's Desk

Over the past few months many people have asked me: "How was the congregational trip to Israel?" My response: "The letter that you received in February spoke about a trip in March of 1997. So, you still have time to sign up."

People have expressed their concerns: Some say: "I don't want to sign up now. I am too afraid of the situation in the Middle East." That's true. The situation in the Middle East is very delicate as the struggle for peace continues. However, that should not stop us from planning trips to Israel. To not plan trips means that Hezbollah and Hamas have achieved a victory. We cannot let them win. We have to show them that tourism will continue, that nothing will stop Jews from visiting Israel. (Besides, this trip is still ten months away.)

Others say: "I don't know if March is the best time to visit. We were thinking of going in December or in the summer." My thoughts: In the summer it is too hot. In December it is too cold and rainy. But from the months of March through May it is not too hot, and not too cold, but just right.

Others say: "Maybe we will go alone as a family or with one other family. Why go with a whole group? The truth is that the group will not be all that big. It will be intimate enough for everyone to get to know one another. The shared experiences of travelling Israel together go beyond just being in Israel, but extend to the return. The friendships that developed over our March, 1995 trip to Israel are still going on strong. (Besides, travelling with a group is less expensive.)

There is no substitute for experiencing Israel. In order to know it, one has to experience it – not just once, but many times. Visiting Israel gives us a sense of our Jewish roots, our Jewish history, and continues to connect us to our Jewish identity.

I write to urge you to join us: Our dates for the friends and family trip to Israel are March 22nd through April 4th, 1997. Please call either Gail Karr or myself soon to let us know the good news, that you will be joining us.

Book of Remembrance Publishing Deadline Friday, June 28

Park Avenue Synagogue publishes a Book of Remembrance every year, for Yom Kippur, in which members of our congregation can list the names of their departed loved ones. The deadline for the inclusion of names to be listed is Friday, June 28.

Since there is no carryover of listings from one year to the next, the names of loved ones must be resubmitted every year.

Names of the deceased listed in the Book of Remembrance are memorialized when Yizkor is recited four times during the year, during the Yizkor Memorial Services on Yom Kippur and on the second day of the Festivals of Sukkot and Shavuot. During Passover, the Yizkor Memorial Service takes place on the eighth day of Passover.

The publishing deadline is a firm one. Therefore, to avoid disappointment, return the card you will receive in the mail promptly.

We Take Pride In

Dr. Herbert H. Frommer, professor and head of the radiology section (Division of Basic Sciences), of the New York University College of Dentistry, who was one of the four recipients of The 1996 Distinguished Teaching Award. According to one colleague, "Students say they will never forget him, and that he is one of the most engaging teachers they have ever had." In addition, his highly praised textbook, Radiology for Dental Auxiliaries, has earned him national attention as an authority in his field.

Monika I. Hamburger, our former assistant executive director, who is now the chief administrative officer of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the umbrella organization which guides the entire Reform movement.

Bryan Kaplan, son of Barbara and Neal Kaplan, who is on a Dorot Foundation Fellowship in Israel this year and will be entering the Columbia University Law School in September.

Vicki Wimpfheimer, who was designated as "Woman of the Year" and awarded the Distinguished Service Certificate for her many years of contributions and devotion to Park Avenue Synagogue's Sisterhood by the Women's League for Conservative Judaism.

Year-End Report From the Religious School

The religious school has had a wonderful year, one which was both academically and socially enriching. The various programs for students as well as for parents and students together contributed to our success and the formation of a school congregation.

Our curriculum is truly dynamic. We change and experiment to make Jewish studies more meaningful and enjoyable to our students. Library sessions have been introduced this year, during which students, by class, have a session in the library with expert teacher Vivian Finkel. The goal of this program is to expose students to our library and to Jewish literature on various subjects. In addition, we revised and computerized the Daled Grade Hebrew Language Reader, prepared several years ago by a team of our teachers, which has been the primary text for this class since that time.

The high school student body has increased by 28% this year. There is a sense of community and camaraderie in the school which has been achieved by the dedication and care of its teachers. Among the many meaningful programs was a Sunday morning showing of the German film, "The Nasty Girl," followed by a discussion of parents and students with a young German student on "Contemporary Germany-Three Generations After World War II."

The achievements in both the elementary and high schools are a manifestation of the quality, care and belief in the importance of Jewish education on the part of our extraordinary faculty. A warm and friendly relationship among the teachers contributes to the sharing of ideas, techniques and materials to the benefit of the entire school.

We all thank the clergy for their support and involvement, the School Board for its efforts to enrich the students' and families' programs, and the Parents' Association for its generosity and interest in the school's welfare.

A Seminary News Brief

A CBS religious special for children, the "Three Miracles," recounted the greatest stories of three faiths: Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Broadcast nationwide, it featured storytellers from each faith and dialogues between the storytellers and children in various religious schools in Cincinnati. The program was produced with the Interfaith Broadcasting Commission, a consortium of four faith groups represented by the Jewish Theological Seminary, the National Council of Churches, the Southern Baptist Radio and Television Commission and the United States Catholic Conference.

A four-part "1996 Religious and Culture Series" continues on June 9th with "Families With Single Parents;" "Reaching Out to Refugees" on October 6th; and "Kids on Faith" on December 8th.

Also through the Interfaith Broadcasting Commission, NBC will present "One Word, Many Texts," a JTS program exploring how ancient Jewish texts continue to speak to us today on August 29th; while on September 22nd, ABC will air the extraordinary cantorial concert held this past March at the Seminary celebrating the renaming of the H.L. Miller Cantorial School and the College of Jewish Music.

A Piece of Park Avenue Synagogue History For Its Archives

Cantor Abraham Friedman, who served as hazzan sheni (assistant cantor) of our congregation from about 1950 through 1963, under Cantor David Puterman, is remembered fondly for his gentle, jovial personality and big, booming voice by long-term congregants and the several hundred B'nai and B'not Mitzvah he trained, says Cantor David Lefkowitz.

Recently, the granddaughter of Cantor Friedman, Jane Lurie, contacted Cantor Lefkowitz and donated to our synagogue's archives recorded tapes of her grandfather's services here which were in her possession. These recordings also include the chanting of Bar Mitzvah Haftarot of the many youngsters he prepared. In a letter to Cantor Lefkowitz, Ms. Lurie wrote: "I am so happy that my grandfather's tapes have found their way home again. Our whole family feels comforted to know that his voice will be preserved in your archives."
